NOTES AND COMMENTS.

We note the suggestion made in some of our contemporaries for the establishment of a League among all British subjects in China (and Hongkong) for mutual defence and protection against Chinese aggression in the, apparently, very probable event of our Government not taking adequate measures to secure us against the dangers to which we are exposed from the hostility of the people of China, and the want of power as well as want of will of the Chinese Government to restrain their people within the bounds of law and order. The proposal, as it has been outlined, contemplates the raising of a large fund from the annual subscriptions of the members and the possibility of that fund being used to arm and fit out parties to escort commissions of inquiry or to punish summarily the perpetrators of massacres of the Kucheng type.

We cannot approve of the proposal. It is not admissible in that form. Badly off as we are in the East, we are not yet in the position of the settlers in the western states of America a few years since. We still have an organized government and that government has a complete official staff and an adequate armed force, both naval and military, on the spot more than sufficient to afford protection, inflict punishment, and enforce redress. While that is so we must leave all such matters in the hands of our governors and seek relief by constitutional methods only. If a European war broke out and the military and naval forces of Great Britain were withdrawn from the East or extensively diminished, and our communications with London were cut off, then only would such a Defence League be permissible.

Each small British community should arm for self-defence, but for self-defence only, under existing circumstances, and yet it is hard to say that it would not have been perfectly justifiable the other day at Fochow to have armed a party and gone up the river to fetch down the survivors and rescue the bodies of the slain, Consul Mansfield consenting or protesting. Self-defence sometimes necessarily extends itself to the defence of one's neighbour. Each little community in China must do the best it can for itself according to the circumstances at the moment, but we doubt if the time has yet come, or if it ever will come, for a general defence association.

If we cannot approve of and recommend the proposed China Defence League, we do approve of and strongly recommend to the attention of our readers everywhere the Navy League advocated by Admiral Sir Vesey Hamilton in his letters addressed to several Eastern contemporaries and recently published by them. It is an admirable idea and worthy of instant acceptance and support by every Englishman in the East. We are all here in virtue of British supremacy on the sea; so long as that is unchallenged we and our settlements and our traffic are safe; when that is seriously challenged we fail. Naval supremacy, our claim to rule the sea, our readiness to fight for that supremacy and maintain that rule against all comers is the Charter from which we derive our rights to exist and to trade. Our naval supremacy depends upon our ability at a moment's notice—now a-days no longer notice will be given—to fight and conquer on the sea any combination of opposing Powers. The country is wealthy enough to maintain a fleet competent for this task; populous enough to find sailors to man such a fleet; but our rulers must be kept alive to their duties and responsibilities in this matter and most of them are ignorant of the facts of the case and of the importance of this question. They are not yet sufficiently educated in the history of nations and of their country to appreciate the lessons to be derived therefrom at their full value. We have made the labourers, the artisans, the small shop-keepers of the three kingdoms our rulers, and if they are to govern us wisely we must teach them. This Navy League has for its objects to teach the democracy of England the secret of their own power and prosperity, and to keep that lesson always and ever before their eyes and to din it, in season and out of season, into their ears, in books, newspapers, lectures, broad sheets, pamphlets, plays, verse and song, anyhow and every how, and we in the East who have it brought home to us daily and hourly that naval supremacy is the one essential of our pride of place, the one safeguard of our position, power, and wealth throughout the world, ought to be the first to join the proposed League, and the first to form a branch of that League in the Far East.

We propose to publish to-morrow the programme of the League and the suggestions for the formation of branches, and we will then invite our readers to join with us in the formation of a Hongkong Branch of the Navy League, and ask their authority to communicate on their behalf with the parent Association in England.

THE KUCHENG COMMISSION.

CONSUL MANSFIELD REPORTED TO BE IN DIFFICULTIES.

(Sent out at 4.30 p.m.)

It is reported on apparently excellent authority that Consul Mansfield has wired to the Commodore for a force of blue-jackets and marines, and that the Hongkong Regiment are very anxious to be sent instead. If the Consul has, and there seems to be little doubt about it, wired for help to Hongkong, he must either have orders to do so, which is improbable as the order would be sent here also, or, what is extremely likely, he finds himself cut off from all communication with his chief in Peking, there being a breakdown of the Chinese lines as there was in Sze-chuen recently. We have wired Shanghai and Foochow, and will publish all information we may receive without delay.

TELEGRAM FROM SHANGHAI.

(Special to Hongkong Telegraph.)

SHANGHAI, August 15th.

5.50 p.m.

No information has reached here tending to show that the Kucheng Commission is in difficulties and that Consul Mansfield wired to the Commodore (Hongkong) for marines and 'blue-jackets.'

News reached here to-day to the effect that the Commission duly arrived at Sulkow, en route to Kucheng, at noon to-day.

TELEGRAM FROM FOCHOW.

Fochow, August 15th.

6.05 p.m.

There is, as far as can be ascertained on the spur of the moment, apparently no truth in the report that Consul Mansfield has telegraphed for assistance.

The Commission arrived at Sulkow to-day.

BOUND FOR FOCHOW.

H.M.S. Rainbow is under orders to proceed to Fochow on Monday, the 19th instant.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.

It consists of the British Consul and Vice Consul, the American Consul, a Lieutenant of the U.S.S. Durand, and the Revs. Banister, Gregory and Dean. Several high Chinese officials and a strong escort of soldiers escort the Commissioners to Kucheng.

QUARANTINE IN JAPAN.

We are indebted to the courtesy of the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce for the following information:—

NOTIFICATION.

With reference to the regulation made by Her Britannic Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires in Japan on the 20th day of June, 1894, to secure the observance by British subjects of the regulations for the inspection of vessels arriving from localities infected with cholera, issued by the Imperial Japanese Government on the twenty-third day of June, 1882, and subsequently amended by Imperial Decree:—

The undersigned, Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Japan, hereby makes known for the information of British subjects resident in or resorting to Japan, that he has received a note from His Excellency the Japanese Minister for Foreign Affairs stating that the said regulations for the inspection of vessels will now be put in force at the Ports of Yokohama, Kobe, Nagasaki, Kanton, Shimonoseki, and Moji in the case of all vessels arriving directly, or otherwise, from ports in Formosa and Korea, being localities infected with cholera.

The said inspection will take place:—

For vessels proceeding to the port of Kobe at Wada Point;

For vessels proceeding to the port of Yokohama at Nigaura; and

For vessels proceeding to the port of Moji or Utsunomiya at Shimonoseki.

When it is necessary to enforce disinfection in the case of vessels bound for the port of Kuchino in Nagasaki Prefecture, or for any other special port of export, they shall proceed to the nearest disinfecting station.

(Signed) ERNEST SATOW,
H.B.M. Legation, July 31st, 1895.

A SCOTTISH ORIENTAL LINER DISABLED.

The steamer Chang Fook Kian, which arrived here from Singapore this morning, reports having spoken the Scottish Oriental Co.'s Bangkok liner Tachlow in a disabled condition in latitude 15 deg. 27' S., longitude 102 deg. 15' E. Both vessels were broken, and the Tachlow was making for Cape Varella under sail and repairing one engine. The Tachlow was making good headway; wind, strong S.E. and weather clear.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

SCHOOL duties will be resumed at the Diocesan School and Orphanage on Monday, the 19th instant.

The Band of the Rifle Brigade will play at the Ladies Recreation Club on the 21st instant, commencing at 9 p.m.

At the Magistracy this morning a Russian 'blue-jacket' was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly in "Blood Town" yesterday.

An Emergency meeting of Zealand Lodge, No. 525, E.C., will be held in the Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

The Times says it is understood that Mr Chamberlain's chief hope lies in the development of the mutual interests of the colonies and Great Britain through commerce. He is keenly interested in the opening to civilisation of the Pacific, and will support the Canadian movement for free trade with Great Britain.

The first issues of the "Belgian Times," the first English "daily" published in Belgium, which was launched in Brussels on the 2nd ult. under the guidance of Mr. T. Lloyd Williams, late proprietor of the Bangkok Times (prior to which he was a member of the editorial staff of the Hongkong Telegraph) have reached the Gorgeous East. We wish the new paper every success.

CAPTAIN A. W. MILLER, R.N., having been relieved by Captain Rowlett, the new Master Attendant at the Royal Naval Yard, left for England by the Empress of China yesterday. Captain Miller was very popular here and will be greatly missed in the A. D. C. and other fashionable sections of the community, with whom he was deservedly popular and highly esteemed.

At the Magistracy to-day Mrs. J. M. Alves appeared to answer a charge brought against her by Mr. McCullum, Secretary of the Sanitary Board, for not fully complying with a notice served on her to abate a nuisance at Kowloon farm, by demolishing certain insanitary dwellings there. By the consent of both parties the Magistrate remanded the case till the 19th instant.

We thought of "writing up" Mr. Brady's forthcoming entertainment a long way in advance but have arrived at the conclusion that a better and equally if not more effective plan will be to call attention merely to the facts set forth in an "express" issued from Messrs. Guedes & Co.'s establishment this morning, thus:—

"At the Theatre Royal, in aid of the funds of the KOWLOON INSTITUTE on SATURDAY, 17th August, at 9 p.m. precisely. Several Ladies and Gentlemen have kindly consented to assist. Tickets can be obtained of Messrs. Kelly & Walsh."

Soldiers and Sailors Hall Price.

At the Magistracy to-day three Chinese exiles were charged with assaulting a Chinese man. Mr. Rees appeared for the prosecution and Mr. H. L. Dennis for the defence. After hearing the evidence for the prosecution and the defence, his Worship, in giving judgment, said that the defendants had no power whatever to search persons but they were constantly doing so thereby rendering themselves liable to be brought up for assault, and the practice has grown so common that the Excise Officers took upon themselves to arrest and search anyone they chose. The defendants had certain powers under Ordinance 21 of 1891, section 29, sub-section 2, which reads:—"Every such person and his baggage shall be liable to be searched before he is taken to the Police station, but only under the supervision of a European Police officer not under the rank of a sergeant." If the defendants had been ordinary individuals his Worship might have taken a lenient view of the case, but under the circumstances the defendants would be fined $20, $10, and $5 respectively.

AMONG visitors we have here at present, says the Peking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News, is Mr. Whitehead, of Hongkong, who is just out from home and who has been doing valiant service in enlightening the minds of our people on questions relating to the Far East, bimetalism, etc. Mr. Emens, of Shanghai, is also with us. The Russian and German Ministers are at Chefoo. Dr. and Madame Wendt of the Russian Legation have left for Europe. Dr. Wendt takes up his appointment at the Russian Legation in Tientsin.

THE banks of Yokohama have lowered their rates of interest since the 1st instant, the new rates being as follows:—
